

attempt to regulate banks more carefully? Did it attempt to protect people from the men who got on the inside and exploited with depositors' money?

"The only bill that was passed was one that gave the power to giving them a larger hold on the banks of the country. Fifteen million depositors asked for protection and the Republican party ignored their demands and listened to the demands of a few financiers."

"I am getting older now; they no longer call me the boy orator. I am afraid they will soon say I am too old to speak. But I am interested in the kind of government I am going to leave to my children, and if I leave them a good government that is worth more than a fortune to them. Let's make the government as good as we can make it, and let's make the name of the American citizen as good as we can make it."

Equal Rights to All.
"Let's make the government just to the poor and to the rich and to those in every department of society, and whether we be young, middle-aged or old, we will feel that such a government is not only a blessing to the living, but that those who die will feel that they leave it as a rich inheritance to those who come after them."

"We cannot tell just now the size of the sweeping victory we are going to win, but indications point to a very large one. Reports from Ohio, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin, Indiana and Illinois will tell you that all those States will vote the Democratic ticket. If their reports are true, we will have so many votes that by the time we get to the Allegheny Mountains we may not need more votes from the mountains. I want it to be a victory in which every part of this country shall have a part. I want New York to have a share."

"If we win, it is going to be a people's victory. If we win, it is going to be a people's government and a people's administration, and I want the Democrats of New York to say they helped to do it."

Tribute to Gompers.
Speaking before a vast crowd in Brooklyn this afternoon, Mr. Bryan paid a glowing tribute to the efforts of Samuel Gompers in behalf of Democracy, and said he would not permit it if he did not believe Mr. Gompers would be rewarded in event of Democratic success.

"If I am elected," he said, "I want a representative of the wage-earners in my Cabinet, in order that I may consult him in matters concerning labor. If any man tells you that if I am elected he will close down the mines, ask him to give you a bond that he will keep it open full time if I am elected. I was not elected in 1896, and men failed just the same. They said then that if I failed there would be better times. Mr. Taft has expressed the opinion that if I am elected there will be another panic. If they can prevent panic if Taft is elected, why did not he and the President put this one off for a few months, so that it would be my panic?"

In conclusion Mr. Bryan promised, if elected, to call an extra session of Congress to consider the planks of the Democratic platform.

"TROLLEY CAR TOUR" ENDS

Kern Concludes Trip Over His Own State at Decatur.

FORT WAYNE, IND., October 27.—The second day of the campaign of John W. Kern by special trolley car through Indiana ended to-night with a big meeting in Decatur. Leaving Indianapolis at 7:30 o'clock this morning, stops were made at Tipton, Kokomo, Logansport, Warsaw and Huntington. The party included, besides the Governor-elect, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas; Rev. Sam W. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., and other speakers.

In every city through which he passed to-day Mr. Kern was besieged by scores of old-time friends, who grasped his hand and introduced him to the audiences as "Honest John" Kern, "your old neighbor" or other terms indicating long acquaintance and friendship.

In his Decatur speech, Mr. Kern said that there were three methods by which the Republican party leaders hoped to win. The first method, he said, was by the use of money which was being "poured into their treasury out of the treasuries of every illegal monopoly in the United States."

The second method, he said, was coercion, and the third, threats of panic. "I am not afraid of their money," he continued, "because votes which are going to win this election for Bryan are votes which all the money in the world cannot buy."

"I am not afraid of coercion, because the men of America have come to know that they are sovereigns, and that no power on earth has a right to coerce them."

"May God give you men of Indiana," he continued, "a new baptism of patriotic power that you may go to the polls on Tuesday and strike a blow for the liberty for which your forefathers fought."

One of the largest crowds that greeted the candidate was assembled at the depot. The townspeople had been stirred up politically earlier in the day by a visit of Senator A. J. Beveridge, and hundreds of farmers had driven to town for the "double bill."

The crowd cheered heartily when Mr. Kern declared that wherever he had been during the campaign, he found that "the masses of the people have faith and admiration for that great champion of the people's rights, William J. Bryan."

"We are going to win this time," he said, "because our opponents are divided, and they are not divided because Democracy is united, but because we are everlastingly right on the issues of the campaign."

$100,000 TO INDIANA

Kern Declares Trusts Contribute to G. O. P., and Sims is Distributor.
TIPTON, IND., October 27.—"I am reliably informed, and make this special charge, that $100,000, largely contributed by trusts and financiers, was brought into Indiana last Sunday and passed through the hands of Hon. Fred Sims, Secretary of State."

John W. Kern, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, made the above declaration here to-day.

"Mr. Sims is a most estimable gentleman and a warm personal friend of mine, but I am compelled to say that it is a sad spectacle to see a public official who is required to pass every year upon the question as to what amount of taxes shall be levied on the railroad and other corporations of his State, handling the money that these corporations are called upon to contribute to the campaign fund. The assessing or taxing officer, who, like Mr. Upham, of Chicago, or Mr. Sims, of Indiana, has the power to raise or lower the taxes of corporations, has rare facilities for frying fat out of the corporations whose properties they are required to value."

SEES IDOL'S FEET OF CLAY

John Temple Graves Stabs at Bryan in Speech at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, GA., October 27.—John Temple Graves, Independence party vice-presidential candidate, in a speech before his fellow-townpeople to-day said:

"In time past I had hoped that a leadership in which I wholly believed and trusted might bring back the Democratic organization to its real mission and its earlier faith. For eight years my faith was pinned to William J. Bryan as the hope of Democratic reform. I am sorry with all my heart that my idol has shown its feet of clay."

"Mr. Bryan is now the Democratic party. He has absorbed it. The Denver convention was the plaything of his will."

"For ten years Mr. Bryan has denounced Grover Cleveland unceasingly as a 'bum-steerer,' who stabbed his party after betraying it, and yet at Denver, facing an election before the people, he prepares or supervises or directs a resolution which pays tribute to Grover Cleveland in measured eulogy."

In conclusion, Mr. Graves said: "And if the Independence party should fall in its faith I shall just as unhesitatingly turn my back upon it as I have done the Democratic party."

BRYAN TO COLLEGE MEN

Graduates and Undergraduates in New York Hear Commoner.

NEW YORK, October 27.—Representing the Democrats in the universities and colleges throughout the United States, graduates and undergraduates gathered at the Hoffman House to-day and perfected the organization of the National League of College Men Democratic Clubs, and incidentally listened to a fifteen-minute address by William J. Bryan.

The meeting was presided over by Warren Jefferson Davis, George Washington University.

The immediate purpose of this convention," he said, "is to give Mr. Bryan, the candidate of the people, the endorsement of college men, both graduates and undergraduates."

The ultimate end is the formation of a permanent league of undergraduates for the election of a Democratic President four years hence."

Among the institutions represented were Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Nebraska, George Washington, Georgetown, Columbia, Brown, Syracuse, Williams and Notre Dame.

Mr. Bryan talked more about the ideals of the student than about politics, but he said that service and subsidiary political reform must go together. He put his political aspirations on a striking comparison to the clearance orders he gives to his associations to be of use to humanity."

NO ISSUE IN CAMPAIGN

Prohibition Candidates for National Offices Make This Charge.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 27.—Eugene W. Chaffin, the Prohibition candidate for President, and Aaron S. Atkins, the vice-presidential candidate, made a massing in the Academy of Music here to-night.

The temperance candidates were enthusiastically received.

Both Mr. Chaffin and his running mate declared that there was nothing to prevent the election of a Prohibition President in 1912. The former said that the Prohibitionists would poll upward of 2,000,000 votes, and that the vote in Illinois would be larger than the vote polled by the party in the entire United States in 1904.

Neither the Republicans nor Democrats have any issue in the present campaign, said the speaker, "the injunction issue having been brought up by the Democrats to down Taft."

"TRAITOR AND TURNCOAT"

Thus William Randolph Hearst Characterizes Governor Chanler.

NEW YORK, October 27.—R. B. Hearst departed from his routine of reading the so-called Standard Oil letters to-night to centre his attack on Lieutenant-Governor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, the Democratic candidate for governor. In a speech at an Independence League meeting at the Grand Central Palace Mr. Hearst produced and read what he said were press notices sent out in the interests of the Chanler presidential boom, prior to the Democratic National Convention, by a press agent employed by Mr. Chanler. In these notices Mr. Bryan's candidacy was held up to ridicule, while Mr. Chanler's qualifications were extolled. With these as a basis Mr. Hearst attempted to show that Mr. Chanler's present attitude toward Mr. Bryan, or rather toward the Democratic party, was one of hypocrisy, and that Mr. Chanler was a "traitor and turncoat."

WILL CARRY HIS PRECINCT

Nothing of Such Fund.
William J. Bryan is Sure of Everything This Election.

NEW YORK, October 27.—William J. Bryan expects to carry his own election precinct in Lincoln next Tuesday the first time in his three campaigns.

"You know that the Republicans are saying that I never carried my own precinct," said Mr. Bryan to the members of the national Democratic clubs, "but the Republicans have not told that when I moved into that precinct there were 100 Republicans to two Democrats, and that now there are only two Republicans to one Democrat. This year I am going to carry my own precinct. I am going to carry the city of Lincoln, and I am going to carry the State of Nebraska."

"IS ABSOLUTELY FALSE"

Secretary of State Sims Says He Knows Nothing of Such Fund.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 27.—When shown the story from Tipton to-day, wherein John W. Kern charged that the hands of the campaign fund, Fred Sims, Secretary of State, said:

"This is absolutely false. I know nothing of a $100,000 campaign fund for Indiana. It is about time for such stories to be circulated, as the Democrats hope to help their cause in this way."

Mr. Sims is chairman of the Indiana Board of Tax Commissioners, which levies the taxes of the State.

HISSEN AT PROVIDENCE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., October 27.—Thomas L. Hissen, Independence party vice-presidential candidate, in a speech before a large crowd of men and women at a rally in the Imperial Theatre here to-night, speaking of his recent Southern campaign, he said:

"When the vote is counted next week, you won't see any more Solid South."

In concluding his speech, Mr. Hissen declared that he was "not going to be a perpetual candidate."

Bath County Helps

NEW YORK, October 27.—The Democratic National Committee announced to-night that contributions amounting to $3,425 were received at the New York headquarters October 26 last.

Among the contributions was $100 from "Democrats of Bath county, Va."

AEROPLANE STRIKES EARTH

Herring's Ship Skimmed Earth for Good Distance, Then Smashed.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The first trial of A. M. Herring's aeroplane, with which he will try later to meet the requirements of a government test, took place at dawn last Sunday on Hempstead Plains, L. I. It is said the machine was considerably damaged, and that at least two weeks will be required to effect repairs. Mr. Herring escaped injury. It is said that the accident was due largely to haste and neglect in assembling the parts.

Herring made a flight of about 200 feet at an altitude of three feet, but in attempting to turn to the right certain parts of the machinery failed to work properly, and the aeroplane tipped up the sand and was disabled.

MERCHANT FATALLY SHOT BY NEGRO BENT ON ROBBERY

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., October 27.—J. A. Cummings, who conducts a store at a small settlement, North Birmingham, and Sagre, was shot and fatally wounded to-night by a negro, who it is alleged, was attempting to rob him.

The negro entered the store and demanded Mr. Cummings' money. Mr. Cummings jumped into the next room, seized a pistol and re-entered the store. The negro fired upon him first and made his escape in the darkness.

AT LEAST ONE RAILROAD HAS HAD SOME BUSINESS

ATLANTA, GA., October 27.—A satisfactory year's business for the Southern Railway, which has just been passed by the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, according to the annual report of the president, H. M. Atkinson, made public here to-day. All old directors and officers were re-elected.

MINISTER'S SON SHOTS HIMSELF IN TEMPLE

WRIGHTSVILLE, GA., October 27.—Thomas Darley, eldest son of Rev. T. W. Darley, died here to-day from a wound in the right temple, sustained by the accidental discharge of a revolver, which he was playing.

The accident occurred at the residence of Hon. R. J. Rowland, with whose boys young Darley was playing.

SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY VOTES FOR PROHIBITION

UNION, S. C., October 27.—Union county again voted for prohibition to-day by about 200 majority out of 1,500 votes cast. During the past three years of prohibition the arrests for drunkenness have decreased 75 per cent, and property valuations in the county are said to have increased $2,000,000.

American consul, Julian H. Arnold, the entertainment for the men will consist of the most part in a carnival of sports. Two hundred dollars will be made in Canton and costing $1,250 each will be awarded as prizes to the ships winning the baseball and football games. This request Admiral Sperry assented. Boat races and other sports will also form part of the program; for these prizes aggregating about $1,000, will be awarded.
